

Monster Raiding Zeppelins That Met With Disaster

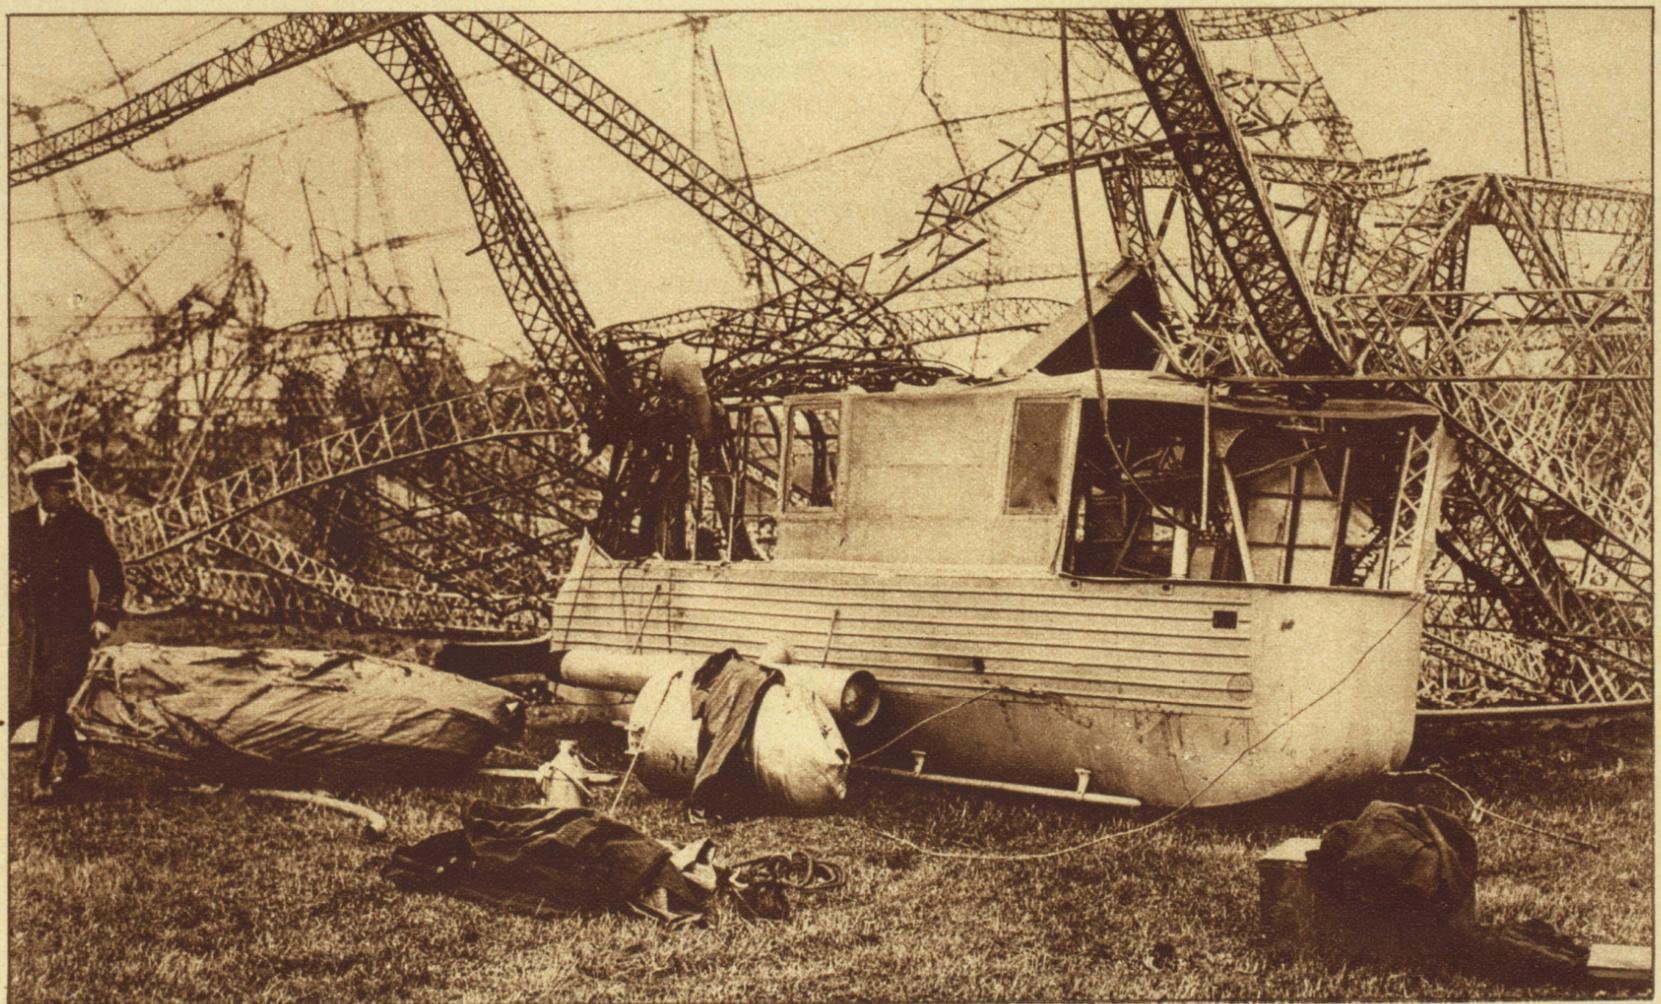

GREAT RELIANCE WAS PLACED BY GERMANY AT THE BEGINNING OF THE WAR ON THE ZEPPELINS, ONE OF WHICH IS SHOWN ABOVE, BUT THEY HAVE NOT FULFILLED THE HOPES BASED UPON THEM.

(Drawing by H. Reuterdahl.)

ZEPPELIN CAPTURED BY THE FRENCH AND LYING HELPLESS IN A FIELD NEAR BOURBONNE-LES-BAINES. THE CREW OF NINETEEN—THREE OF THEM OFFICERS—LANDED BY MEANS OF PARACHUTES.

(© International Film Service.)

THIS ZEPPELIN THAT RAIDED ENGLAND WAS BROUGHT DOWN IN FLAMES AND ALL ITS CREW PERISHED. ALL THAT REMAINED OF IT WAS THE TWISTED MASS OF STEEL HERE SHOWN.

(© International Film Service.)