

FROM A PHOTOGRAPH OF GAILLARD CUT, MADE ON DECEMBER 7 LAST, LOOKING SOUTH FROM THE WEST BANK.
(Photo from E. Hallen.)

CYRUS EDWIN DALLIN, THE BOSTON SCULPTOR, PUTTING THE FINISHING TOUCHES ON HIS STATUE OF ANNE HUTCHINSON, A PIONEER NEW ENGLAND PREACHER, WHO WAS CONVICTED OF HERESY AND SEDITION AND EXPELLED FROM MASSACHUSETTS, AND WAS, IN 1643, MURDERED BY INDIANS NEAR STAMFORD, CONN.
The Statue Will Soon Be Placed in the Boston Public Library.

GERMAN GIRL WEARING THE NEW UNIFORM ADOPTED FOR WOMEN WHO HAVE TAKEN MEN'S PLACES IN RUNNING GERMAN RAILWAYS
(Photos from Central News Photo Service.)

THE DUKE OF THE PUGLIE, Eldest Son of the Duke and Duchess of Aosta, Members of the Italian Royal Family, Now on a Visit to England with His Younger Brother, the Duke of Spoleto.
(Photo from Central News Photo Service.)

JOHN SINGER SARGENT.
From the Caricature by Dulac, Recently Exhibited at the Scott & Fowles Galleries.
(Photo by De W. & Ward.)

Girls in Polish National Costumes Selling Souvenirs at the Christmas Tree Bazaar Given by Mme. Ignace Jan Paderewski for the Benefit of War-Stricken Polish Children.
Left to Right, Are Misses Elizabeth Battreall, Wilma Waite and Margaret Baker.
(Photo by Underwood & Underwood.)