HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK

Broadway at 77th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

A man and his family touring from Oklahoma City to the East, met a friend of the Hotel Belleclaire in Chicago, who told him that when he reached New York he should by all means stop at this hotel because there were numerous garages near by, and that he and his family would receive as much attention from Belleclaire workers as if they were in their own home.

This Oklahoma City man acted on the suggestion of our friend in Chicago, and came here and visited us for several days—taking frequent drives around New York and out on Long Island and throughout New Jersey, but always returning to the hotel every evening, because, as he said: "I never felt so much at home in any hotel in my life and my family tell me they were never served in any hotel with such fine home cooking."

He will go back to Oklahoma City as a great roofer for the Belleclaire, and thus it is that we multiply friends in all sections of the country.

Don't you think it pays to conduct a hotel in this way, so that our guests are always content and comfortable and well-fed?

Robert D. Blackman, Proprietor.
